

Summary

“Our aim is to start the process...”

(after round table “Civic education in Belarus: problems of formation and development”)

Article presents records of the aforementioned activity, including report of Vladimir Matskevich, who introduced his vision of Belarusian civic education actualities, report of Andrey Egorov, as well as speeches and remarks of other participants of a round table.

Tatyana Vodolazhkaya

Generational dynamics of citizenship conceptions

To the problem of Belarusian civic education content

The article continues the cycle of texts and discussions about the content of civic education. The sociological analysis offered below can be another step in analysis of civic education content problem. It will examine citizenship conceptions in Belarusian society that should be considered as background conditions of civic education activities.

Ihar Kuzminich

National consciousness and civic education

The article presents records of the round table “The role of Belarusian national consciousness in formation of socially active Belarusian citizen” — questions discussed, thesis of main reports, conclusions, made after the discussion.

Vitaut Rudnik

More than just “mova” (language)

Author attracts our attention to the important, fundamental question of civic education in Belarus — the language of education.

Vyacheslav Bobrovich

Serious games at the field of civic education

(notes of the participant of (OAG))

Author offers his vision of Organizational-Activities Game (OAG) as a method and of the controversial opinions it receives. Basing on personal experience of participating in the game, he voices attractive and disturbing sides, attempts to explain the roots of this ambivalence.

Lana Rudnik

Crazy! Young! Jjjjournalistic!

Personal experience of long-term education project “School of young journalist”

Author presents the Public association “Centre for Informational Support of Public Initiatives «The Third Sector»” experience of “School of young journalist” project — the history and participants, the concept, main peculiarities, outcomes and reviews.

Pyotr Kendzyor

Main directions of pupils civic education in Ukrainian general education system

Author presents main directions of youth civic education in Ukraine, introduces the readers to the activities of Association “Nova Doba” and experience of holding civic action of Ukrainian school pupils “Citizen–2007”.

Irina Semko

Civic education in Russia

In this article author addresses the Russian experience of civic education and examines the issues of organizational-legislative coverage and the major subjects of civic education in Russia.