

Summary

Marina Boiko, Elena Kasyanik.

Career management: opening the theme

The authors raise a question of support of persons' professional growth as a part of professional education. The article presents an international project aimed at this problem, and several steps on its realization.

Sergey Laboda.

To the question of development of professional competencies of a trainer

The author raises important questions of professional competencies of a trainer as a guarantee of the quality of educational programs, development of Belarusian trainer community, necessity of the constant self-education of the trainer.

Andrey Levko.

The youth and the labor-market. How can NGOs help?

The author presents the experience of work with the youth in the sphere of career management of PU "Focus group".

Tamara Matskevich.

The web-site Nastaunik.info as a method of civic education of pedagogues

The author shares experience of PU "Center Supolhast" which tried to organize distant communication with teachers with the help of Internet and involved them in creation of the web-platform.

Natalya Ryabova.

Internet-review of business education in Belarus

The author offers structural-thematically review of the sphere of business education in Belarus.

Sergey Gotin.

Management as competence

This article is about professional competencies in the field of management skills. In addition, it partly reviews the problem of professional competencies of consultants who are to evaluate and develop them.

Alena Lugovtsova, Marina Boiko.

Role that plays a man. Live-action role-plays in education

The article is dedicated to the Large role-play: the authors introduce LARP and its peculiarities, main concepts, classification, and fix the problems in education the LARP can help to solve.

Katerina Goncharova.

Arhus convention: positive experience

The author describes experience of work on the topic "Arhus convention" with the representatives of different educational institutions and gives an example of the program of studies on this topic.

Terese Raymond.

Do you know what you know?

The author presents the method of ELD and its main characteristics.